A flooring manufacturer investing in total product care?

Isn't that the way it should be?

Shaw agrees. That's why we bring you Shaw Total Care, your partner in training, certification, and complete product care and support. We provide a comprehensive care and maintenance program and product support made available through a variety of opportunities. Not only that, but our complete training resources cover over installation and maintenance—including preventive, interim, and restorative. And we're the only flooring company to offer these value-add services to our end users.

When you become part of the Shaw Total Care Cleaning and Installation network, you've instantly got a team on your side. We work together, every step of the way, getting the most out of your products and saving you time and money.
